

A journey through the three culinary areas Grill-Pasta-Bar.

At brenner restaurant on Munich's posh Maximilianstraße, all signs have pointed toward culinary pleasure ever since 2003. Thanks to its successful combination of an architectural landmark and ultramodern stylistic elements, the restaurant offers a unique atmosphere that invites guests to take on a culinary journey through three culinary areas: Grill, Pasta and Bar.

brenner restaurant throbs with the pulse of the times and reflects what the people of Munich love: health-conscious food combinations, high-quality fish and meat dishes, plus an exclusive selection of wines, cocktails and other beverages. A winning combination of outstanding foods and drinks, coupled with friendly service provided by a well-trained staff, has made brenner one of Germany's leading trendy dining and drinking locations. But brenner is more than "merely" a restaurant. Unforgettable hours are assured by the unique atmosphere, the open fire and the vivacious mood in the Marstall, a protected architectural monument with an impressive pillared hall that was formerly the stables of the royal residence. brenner's threefold division is unique: guests enjoy a grill area with an open fire, another space where homemade pasta is served and finally a bar with lounge character.
