

A JOURNEY THROUGH THREE CULINARY AREAS: GRILL-PASTA-BAR

In Munich's Maximilianstrasse, the restaurant brenner has been a sign of enjoyment since 2003. Due to the successful composition of its old buildings and modern style elements, the restaurant offers a unique atmosphere and invites its guests on a culinary journey through its three areas: Grill, Pasta and Bar. brenner, a restaurant on the leading edge of the times, reflects what Munich people love: health-conscious food combining high-quality fish and meat dishes, and a selected range of wines, cocktails and drinks. The successful mix of exquisite food and drinks as well as the friendly, trained staff make brenner one of the leading trend restaurants in Germany. But the brenner is more than „just“ a restaurant: the atmosphere, fire and life in the colonnade of the Marstall, the former horse stable of the Residenz, ensure unforgettable hours. The restaurant is divided into three parts: a grill area with an open fireplace, a pasta area where homemade pasta is prepared and a bar with lounge character.

BRENNER FACTS

FURNISHING

Equipment and furniture are designed with a great deal of intuition based on the original historical structure of the building. The terrazzo floor was laid by Italian master craftsmen in a traditional and elaborate process. The individual areas are separated by wrought-iron elements made in Munich. There is also plenty of warm wood for chairs and tables, as well as benches with high-quality leather upholstery.
